Storyline/Structure:

The book follows Julian "Jules" Thorne, a former poker prodigy who lost everything – his fortune, his family, his reputation – in a single disastrous night in Vegas years ago. He's been tipped off about a massive, hidden gambling ring operating within the city's casinos, a ring that rigged his fateful game. His quest for truth takes him through a labyrinthine network of high-roller suites, backroom poker dens, and clandestine meetings with shadowy figures. Each encounter pushes Jules closer to the heart of the conspiracy but simultaneously further into the moral grey area. He must decide how far he's willing to go to exact his revenge and find out who really betrayed him. The narrative unfolds in a non-linear fashion, weaving between Jules's present-day investigation and flashbacks revealing his past triumphs and the catastrophic events that led to his downfall.
