Book Concept: 3606 Big Bay Drive, Edisto Island

Title: 3606 Big Bay Drive, Edisto Island: A Coastal Memoir of Loss, Renewal, and Unexpected Love

Logline: A woman escapes the ashes of her past to a remote South Carolina island, only to uncover secrets buried beneath the sand and find unexpected love in the most unlikely of places.

Target Audience: Readers who enjoy literary fiction with elements of mystery, romance, and coastal settings. Appeals to fans of Dorothea Benton Frank, Karen White, and Mary Kay Andrews.

Storyline/Structure:

The book follows Sarah, a successful but emotionally depleted architect fleeing a devastating personal loss. She impulsively buys a dilapidated beachfront property at 3606 Big Bay Drive on Edisto Island, seeking solace and anonymity. The island, with its quiet beauty and eccentric inhabitants, offers a temporary escape, but the house itself holds secrets from a past she can't ignore. As Sarah renovates the house, she unearths clues related to its previous owners, leading her on a journey of self-discovery intertwined with a captivating mystery. She forms an unlikely bond with a local fisherman, Jake, whose life is as unpredictable as the tides. Their relationship is both a source of comfort and challenge, reflecting the ebb and flow of her emotional healing. The climax involves the unraveling of the house's history and a confrontation with her past, culminating in a powerful resolution where Sarah finds peace and a surprising new beginning.
