Book Concept: Angelina's Ballet Class: A Katharine Holabird Inspired Guide to Grace, Discipline, and Self-Discovery

Book Title: Angelina's Ballet Class: Finding Your Inner Grace

Target Audience: Parents of young girls (ages 5-12), aspiring young ballerinas, and adults interested in the transformative power of dance and self-discipline.

Concept: This book expands upon the beloved Angelina Ballerina series by Katharine Holabird, exploring the broader themes of discipline, perseverance, friendship, and self-discovery within the context of ballet training. While retaining the charm and accessibility of the original stories, it transcends the simple narrative to offer practical advice, inspiring stories, and insightful reflections on the journey of a young dancer. The book will be richly illustrated with captivating artwork.

Storyline/Structure: The book will adopt a hybrid approach, seamlessly blending narrative elements inspired by Angelina's world with practical, informative chapters. It will follow a fictionalized Angelina (now slightly older) as she navigates the challenges and joys of advanced ballet training, interspersed with chapters offering guidance on various aspects of dance education and personal growth.
