The exam consists of two sections: a multiple-choice section and a free-response section. The multiple-choice section accounts for 50% of the final score and comprises approximately 55 questions that cover a broad range of historical periods and themes. The free-response section constitutes the other 50% and includes one document-based question (DBQ), accounting for 25%, and one long essay question (LEQ), also accounting for 25%. Understanding the weighting of each section is crucial for effective exam preparation.
