Book Concept: Apple Turnover Murder by Joanne Fluke

Logline: When a prized apple turnover recipe goes missing—and its creator turns up dead—amateur baker and mystery solver Hannah Swensen must unravel a web of secrets, lies, and deliciously deadly ingredients in Lake Eden.

Storyline Structure:

The novel will follow Hannah Swensen, the beloved protagonist from Joanne Fluke's Hannah Swensen Mystery series, as she navigates a particularly complex case. This particular installment will focus on the annual Lake Eden Apple Festival's highly anticipated baking competition. The reigning champion baker is found murdered, a single, perfectly crafted apple turnover clutched in her hand. The recipe for her award-winning turnover, a closely guarded secret, is missing. Suspicion falls on various contestants and local residents, each with their own motives and secrets. Hannah, with the help of her friends and family (and, of course, plenty of delicious baked goods), must solve the murder before another victim falls prey to the killer's sweet tooth.

Ebook Description:
