Aethelgard, a land of perpetual winter, thrives on technological innovation and military might. Solara, bathed in perpetual sunshine, embraces spirituality, nature worship, and a more communal societal structure. The introduction must subtly introduce the long-standing tension between them, hinting at past conflicts and the simmering resentments that underpin their current uneasy peace. This sets the stage for the central conflict and introduces key geographical locations and the overall tone of the narrative. We'll explore the socio-political structures of both kingdoms, hinting at the core values that shape their cultures and fuel their conflict.
