

baie de la ciotat

Book Concept: Baie de la Ciotat

Title: Baie de la Ciotat: Sun, Secrets, and Shadows

Genre: Historical Fiction/Mystery with elements of Travelogue

Logline: A young American archivist unearths a century-old mystery hidden within the sun-drenched beauty of Baie de la Ciotat, uncovering long-buried secrets and a conspiracy that reaches far beyond the picturesque French coastline.

Target Audience: Readers interested in historical fiction, mysteries, travel literature, French culture, and compelling female protagonists.

Compelling Storyline:

The book follows Maya, a meticulous American archivist tasked with cataloging the personal papers of a renowned French filmmaker who spent his formative years in Baie de la Ciotat. As she delves into his personal journals and film reels, Maya stumbles upon cryptic entries hinting at a scandalous affair, a hidden fortune, and a possible murder connected to the town's intriguing history. Her investigation takes her on a journey through the charming streets of Ciotat, the glamorous world of early cinema, and the hidden corners of the French Riviera, all while facing resistance from those who would prefer the past to remain buried. The mystery unfolds through flashbacks interwoven with Maya's present-day investigation, revealing the secrets of the filmmaker's life and the impact his actions have on the lives of those around him, even a century later.
