Compelling Storyline:

The book follows Chloe, a struggling artist in a bustling, expensive city, who unexpectedly becomes an internet sensation with a series of satirical Barbie-inspired artworks critiquing modern beauty standards and consumerism. Her success, however, leaves her feeling more hollow than fulfilled. The pressure, the scrutiny, and the superficiality of the online world push her back to her hometown of Sioux Falls, South Dakota – a place she left to escape its perceived limitations. Back in Sioux Falls, Chloe must navigate the complex dynamics of her family, reconnect with old friends, and confront the expectations she abandoned. The book will explore her journey of self-discovery as she discovers unexpected opportunities, genuine connections, and a renewed sense of purpose that extends beyond the fleeting nature of online fame. The Barbie aesthetic serves as both a satirical commentary and a symbolic representation of the clash between idealized fantasy and the messy reality of life.
