Miracles, as depicted in the Gospels, are not mere magical tricks or coincidences. They serve as powerful demonstrations of God's power, character, and love. This study will approach miracles not merely as isolated events but as integral parts of Jesus's overall mission to reveal God's glory and redeem humanity. We will explore different interpretations of miracles and their purpose within a broader theological context. The key questions we will address include: What constitutes a miracle? Why did Jesus perform miracles? What are the implications of Jesus's miracles for our lives today?
