H2: Capítulo 1: El Antiguo Testamento – Un Viaje a través de la Historia de la Salvación

The Old Testament, a collection of books spanning centuries, narrates the unfolding story of God's covenant with humanity. From the creation narrative in Genesis to the prophetic visions of Isaiah and Jeremiah, it traces the development of Israel as God's chosen people. This chapter explores key themes running throughout the Old Testament, such as God's faithfulness, the consequences of disobedience, and the promise of a future Messiah. We will delve into the historical contexts, examining the societal structures, cultural practices, and political landscapes that shaped the stories and prophecies. The establishment of the covenant, its continuous renegotiation, and the consequences of its breach will be central to our understanding of this foundational section of the Bible. We will explore prominent figures, including Abraham, Moses, David, and the prophets, analyzing their roles in the unfolding narrative of God's plan of salvation.

H3: Capítulo 2: El Nuevo Testamento – La Vida, Muerte y Resurrección de Jesús

The New Testament focuses on the life, ministry, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, culminating in the establishment of the early Christian Church. This chapter examines the four Gospels—Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John—each offering a unique perspective on Jesus' life and teachings. We analyze the synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke) identifying their similarities and differences, as well as the unique theological emphasis of John's Gospel. The Acts of the Apostles portrays the spread of Christianity in the early centuries, highlighting the pivotal role of the Holy Spirit and the growth of the Church. The Pauline epistles, letters written by the apostle Paul, explore core theological concepts such as salvation, faith, grace, and the nature of the Church. Finally, the Catholic epistles offer further guidance on Christian living and faith, while the Book of Revelation presents a powerful symbolic vision of the ultimate triumph of good over evil.
